Title RELEASING OFFICER
State whether releasing Officer or his Superior Officer

.....
Penal Code Section 849 provides in part:

(a) When an arrest is made without a warrant by a Peace Officer or private person, the person arrested, if not otherwise released, shall, without unnecessary delay, be taken before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, and a complaint stating the charge against the arrested person shall be laid before such magistrate.

(b) Any Peace Officer may release from custody, instead of taking such person before a magistrate, any person arrested without a warrant whenever:

- ☐ (1) He or she is satisfied that there are insufficient grounds for making a criminal complaint against the person arrested.
- ☐ (2) The arrested person was arrested for intoxication only, and no further proceeding are desirable.
- ☒ (3) The person was arrested only for being under the influence of a controlled substance or drug and such person is delivered to a facility or hospital for treatment and no further proceedings are desirable.

(c) Any record of arrest of a person released pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (3) of subdivision (b) shall include a record of release. Thereafter, such arrest shall not be deemed an arrest, but a detention only.

Penal Code Section 849.5 provides:

- ✓ ☐ In any case in which a person is arrested and released and no accusatory pleading is filed charging him with an offense, any record of arrest of the person shall include a record of release. Thereafter, the arrest shall not be deemed an arrest, but a detention only.

REPORT NARRATIVE

ORIGIN:

On 12/22/14 at about 1810 hours, I responded with Officer Hay to 1819 Andy Lane, on a radio call regarding a family disturbance.

OFFICER'S OBSERVATIONS AND ACTIONS:

As I was driving to the location, I was in the 1500 block of Kelly Street, just around the corner from the location of the original call. I saw Officer Hay's patrol vehicle traveling just in front of me. As we passed by the residence located at 1537 Kelly Street, I saw a light skinned black female adult and a light skinned black male juvenile in the roadway. The female, later identified as Cassandra Wallace, was flailing her arms in the air and yelling something unintelligible. I later learned the male juvenile was her young brother. I continued driving past the two, not knowing that Cassandra was the subject of the call. I parked my vehicle behind Officer Hay's vehicle near the intersection of Kelly Street and Andy Lane. I exited my vehicle and saw a black male approaching. He identified himself as, [REDACTED] the father of Cassandra Wallace. He told me that Cassandra was acting strangely. He stated that she was off her psych medications and possibly under the influence of illegal drugs.

While I was speaking with [REDACTED], Officer Hay walked towards Cassandra. I finished speaking with [REDACTED] and walked to Cassandra with Officer Hay. When I got to her location, Officer Hay was trying to tell Cassandra that we were there to help her and asked what was going on. Cassandra was asking Officer Hay and then myself if we would look at her stomach. She could not articulate any real medical or mental health problem that she may be having. She appeared agitated and confused.

Additionally, she appeared to be under the influence of a control substance, possibly a CNS Stimulant. She was speaking rapidly and much of the time she was unintelligible. She would flail her arms as she was speaking and did not appear to have control of them. However, she denied using drugs. She attempted to walk away from us and I believed that she needed to be detained so we could evaluate her mental wellbeing. I believed Cassandra was a danger to herself, based on her behavior, i.e., walking on a darkened roadway and not being able to respond to questions concerning her wellbeing. I began to talk with Cassandra and she became calm. While I was speaking to her, Officer Hay was able to place her in handcuffs. After she was handcuffed I asked Cassandra to walk to my vehicle. She became defiant and attempted to flee. Officer Hay had a grasp of her left arm and I had ahold of her right arm. We attempted to pull her towards the vehicle and she threw legs forward, out from under her body and sat on the ground. Cassandra was yelling "I'm insane! Just take me home." Officer Hay stayed with Cassandra as she sat on the ground and I went to my vehicle and moved it to Cassandra. Officer Hay and I attempted to put Cassandra in the rear passengers' side seat of my vehicle. She became rigid and stood on the lower door seal of the vehicle, with her upper torso above the roof of the vehicle. Officer Hay was trying to push her down into the seat of the vehicle as I went to the rear drivers' side of the vehicle and attempted to pull her into the vehicle from the opposite side. I grasped one of her arms and tried to pull her into the vehicle, but she was able to brace a shoulder against the top of the door frame and I could not pull her into the vehicle. Cassandra continued to resist, so I released my grasp on her and walked back to the other side of the vehicle. As I was coming around the backside of my vehicle, I saw Officer Hay still struggling with Cassandra and he pushed her. I learned later that Cassandra had bitten Officer Hay on his right forearm. Cassandra landed on the ground and Officer Hay reached towards her to get control of her flailing body. Officer Hay yelled at me to get my maximum restraint cord, which I did. As I went back to where Officer Hay was restraining Cassandra, she lurched upwards with her upper torso and attempted to head-butt Officer Hay. Now lying on her back, she kicked upwards with both of her feet and attempted to kick Officer Hay in the face. Officer Hay yelled that she was banging her head on the ground. Officer Hay grabbed both of her feet to prevent her from kicking, while I grasped Cassandra's head, using both of my hands to prevent her from striking her head on the ground. This is when I first noticed blood coming from a cut above Cassandra's right eye. As I held her head down, Officer Hay applied the maximum restraint cord. Once she was secured, we rolled Cassandra onto her right side and remained with her until Paramedics arrived to attend to her injury.

I accompanied Cassandra to Tri City Medical Center (TCMC) in the Carlsbad Fire Department Ambulance. At TCMC I was told by the Emergency Room attending physician, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that it would be an extended period of time, maybe a few days, before Cassandra would be cleared for booking, if that was our intent.

After advising Sergeant Bussey of the situation, he instructed me to release Cassandra, per PC 849(b). I completed the PC 849(b) form, and provided a copy to Cassandra. Cassandra then wanted to leave the hospital immediately, without receiving treatment for her injury. I conferred with the Emergency Room Psych Liaison [REDACTED] and I both agreed Cassandra was not making rational decisions concerning her physical wellbeing regarding her injury. Because of this and her obvious drug

NARRATIVE

On 12/22/14, I responded to a request for an FET in the 1500 block of Kelly St. Upon arrival, Officer Hay requested that I photograph the general area in which the altercation took place. He also requested that I photograph him and the injuries he sustained. I took an overall identification photograph of Officer Hay. I then photographed his injuries with and without a scale. Officer Hay had a bite mark on his right forearm and cuts to his right knee. The bottom half of the front of both pant legs were dirty. I asked Officer Hay if he had any additional injuries. He indicated that he did not. I then photographed the area in which the incident occurred, which was in a driveway on the south side of the street. I photographed the dirt area. There was a small amount of blood on the ground of the driveway.

I then responded to Tri City Medical Center located at 4002 Vista Way. Upon arrival, Sergeant Bussey requested that I photograph the suspect, Cassandra Wallace. I took an overall identification photograph of Wallace. I then photographed her injuries with and without a scale. Wallace's injuries consisted of a laceration to her right eyelid and bruising and swelling to her right eye and an abrasion on her left elbow. I asked Wallace if she had any additional injuries. She indicated that she did not.

I then photographed Officer Byrd. Officer Byrd did not incur any injuries. The bottom of the front of his pants were slightly dirty.

I cleared the scene and later uploaded the digital photographs into the OPD digital evidence storage system.

INDIVIDUALSREPORT NARRATIVE*ORIGIN:

On 12/22/14 at about 1825 hours, I responded to an officer that was requesting emergency cover at 1819 Andy Lane.

OFFICERS OBSERVATIONS AND ACTIONS:

Upon arrival, I saw a subject later identified as Cassandra Wallace, detained in handcuffs and in maximum restraints as she was on the ground in the driveway of 1537 Kelly Street. Officer Hay asked me to watch Cassandra briefly. Shortly after, Sergeant Bussey arrived on scene and advised me to obtain witness statements. I contacted Cassandra's father who verbally identified himself as [REDACTED] and obtained his statement. I also recorded his statement which was later uploaded to the digital evidence system.

STATEMENTS:

[REDACTED] told me his daughter, Cassandra, was causing a disturbance at the house today and acting out. He said she was screaming profanities in front of his two younger sons and appeared under the influence. He did not know what was bothering her but she mentioned her boyfriend which he does not allow her to see. Shortly after, his sons advised him that Cassandra left the house and was using the neighbor's phone to call her boyfriend [REDACTED]. They said she got mad and threw the neighbor's phone down. [REDACTED] called the police. [REDACTED] went outside and began to talk with another neighbor who was trying to talk with Cassandra just prior. Cassandra was about 100 feet away down the street. The police arrived and [REDACTED] advised them of the incident and pointed her out to the police. [REDACTED] said police yelled for Cassandra but she ignored them and walked away on Kelly Street. One officer ran after her and another officer got in his vehicle to locate her. [REDACTED] was at his house when the police made contact with her up the street. [REDACTED] said it was dark and he could not see anything. He heard Cassandra screaming when the police contacted her. He heard his daughter yell, "Fuck you. Let me go!" He could hear the officers say something but does not know what. He did not hear them yell either. [REDACTED] finally arrived to where the officers had contacted her up the street. Cassandra was on the ground in the driveway of a neighbor's house. The officers were crouching over her and placed handcuffs on her. He also observed them place the "hobble" on her. He did not see the officers struggling with his daughter as they handcuffed her.

INDIVIDUALSREPORT NARRATIVE

On 12/21/14 at approximately 1824 hours, I heard Officer Hay broadcast through the police radio that he was requesting a supervisor to his location, 1500 Kelly St. I responded from El Camino Real/Mesa Drive and arrived on scene at approximately 1838 hours. While driving to the location, Officer Hay also requested a FET to his location and paramedics.

Upon arrival, I was contacted by Officer Hay who briefed me on the circumstances surrounding the incident. He advised me that he and Officer Byrd had to use an amount of force on a suspect, later identified as Cassandra Wallace, while taking her into custody. While speaking with Officer Hay, Wallace was being transported to Tri-City Medical Center (TCMC) for medical attention. I was also informed that the police vehicle they were attempting to get Wallace into had already been driven away by Officer Kelly to TCMC.

Officer Hay directed me to the location of where the incident had occurred, which was along the south curb line of Kelly St. At that location, I observed a small amount of blood on the ground. Officer Hay informed me that the blood was a result of Wallace's injuries. I asked Officer Hay if he was injured and he showed me a bite mark on his right forearm, which was a result of Wallace biting him. Officer Hay also showed me a small abrasion to his right knee.

Upon the arrival of FET McLain, I directed her to photograph the area of where the incident had occurred. I also advised her of Officer Hay's injuries that had to be photographed.

I contacted Officer Crosby and Officer Wheeler who were on scene and I requested they conduct a canvass of the surrounding area for any possible witnesses. I also had Officer Crosby interview the reporting party of the call for service. I was unable to locate any exterior video surveillance that may have captured this incident.

I responded to TCMC to contact Officer Byrd and Wallace. Upon arrival, I observed Officer Byrd standing outside of a secured room, B-11, which is located within the emergency room. I was also briefed by Officer Byrd on the circumstances surrounding the incident. Officer Byrd informed me that he was not injured.

While standing outside of the secured room, I could see Wallace through a window in the door. She was walking in circles while handcuffed. I observed Wallace's right eye was swollen with a laceration to her eyelid and an abrasion to her left elbow. I entered the room to conduct an interview. Prior to speaking with Wallace, I advised her of her Miranda rights and she stated she understood her rights and was willing to speak with me. The interview was digitally recorded and later uploaded into evidence by FET McLain.

After introducing myself to Wallace, she spontaneously stated that she didn't know what happened and "I'm fucking stupid I hate myself." After waiving her Miranda rights, I asked her about what had occurred and she stated that the officers had hit her in the eye and that she wanders everywhere. She also referred to herself as "fucking crazy" and all she wanted to do was leave and take a shower. Wallace continued to say that she woke up in the state she was in and was brought to the present location. Wallace stated she didn't know anything and didn't remember anything prior to me speaking with her. She doesn't remember anything that occurred with the officers or at her residence. Wallace stated she woke up with the injury. I asked Wallace if she was injured anywhere else besides her eye and she stated that she wasn't. Most of the conversation was Wallace speaking unintelligibly.

After speaking with Wallace, I directed FET McLain to photograph Wallace's injuries. I also had Officer Byrd photographed.

I later notified Risk Management of this incident via e-mail.

REPORT NARRATIVEORIGIN:

On 12/22/14 at about 1820 hours I responded to a radio call of a disturbance at 1819 Andy Ln. At the time of the incident I was in full police uniform and driving a marked patrol vehicle.

OFFICERS OBSERVATIONS AND ACTIONS:

Prior to my arrival, Officer Hay had requested the assistance of additional units for a possible combative subject. I responded from the area of the 4000 block of Oceanside Blvd. I arrived on scene at about 1835 hours and I made contact with Officer Hay who explained that he had been bitten on the left arm by the combative subject during the incident. See the respective reports for details.

Sergeant Bussey arrived shortly after and requested I take the witness statement of two individuals at the scene. I received the statement of [REDACTED]. I digitally recorded [REDACTED] statement with my voice recorder and later submitted the recording to OPD evidence. [REDACTED] did not actually witness the incident so I did not record his statement.

STATEMENTS:

Statement of Witness - [REDACTED] essentially stated that she was outside of her residence when she heard yelling coming from up the street. She saw the police vehicles in the street and that there was a struggle with a women yelling. [REDACTED] approached the scene and saw a female, "Cassandra", fighting with the police officers. [REDACTED] said the police were trying to calm the female down, but she continued fighting with them and not listening to the police. After a short time the police officers were able to gain control of her and detain her in handcuffs. The police officers continued talking to her and telling her to calm down. [REDACTED] explained that the police were very polite and doing what they could to get her to relax. [REDACTED] did not see any details regarding the fight, she could just see that the female was struggling and trying to get away.

See [REDACTED] recorded statement for details

Statement of Witness - [REDACTED] did not witness anything involving the incident with the officers. [REDACTED] was inside his residence at the time of the incident and did not come outside until after the struggle was over.

INDIVIDUALSREPORT NARRATIVE*ORIGIN:

On 12/22/14 at 1810 hours, I received a radio call of a disturbance at 1819 Andy Lane. The reporting party, [REDACTED], advised his 26 year old daughter, Cassandra Wallace, wearing a white shirt and black jeans was possibly under the influence of an unknown substance and causing a disturbance. She was last seen across the street from the residence.

OFFICER'S OBSERVATIONS AND ACTIONS:

I arrived on scene at 1823 hours. The time of day was dark, the weather was foggy and the street was not well lit. I located Cassandra Wallace in the 1500 block of Kelly Street. Cassandra ran towards my police car and tried to put her head into my open passenger window. I pulled forward so she could not have access to the interior of my vehicle. Cassandra made a spontaneous statement while I was driving away of, "I wasn't screaming." I saw the reporting party, [REDACTED] who I know from a prior contact, near the intersection of Kelly Street and Andy Lane. I parked along the north curb of Kelly Street just east of Andy Lane to contact [REDACTED]. I asked what happened and [REDACTED] pointed to Cassandra in the street, then said that's my daughter and she needs help. Officer Byrd arrived on scene and took over the interview with [REDACTED].

At this time, Cassandra was walking around in circles looking up at the sky. She jerked her head from left to right while continually looking up. Cassandra looked obviously dazed and confused and was in the middle of the street. Because of the dark foggy weather and her unusual behavior, I wanted to get Cassandra out of the street for her safety. As I walked up the hill, east towards Cassandra's location, I saw headlights from a vehicle coming west bound towards Cassandra. I quickly got to Cassandra, who was about 30 yards, east of my police car. Cassandra lifted her shirt up exposing her torso and asked me to feel her stomach. I grabbed her right arm by the wrist and asked her to get out of the street. The car who was driving towards us parked prior to getting to our location.

Cassandra immediately said, "Don't touch me, I'm crazy." I pointed to the car on the other side of the street and said, "I can't let you walk in circles in the street. You might get hit by a car." I believed Cassandra was under the influence of a controlled substance, or needed psychiatric attention. It was also my belief that if I did not intervene, Cassandra was at risk of being injured because she was not fit to care for herself based upon my initial observations. I saw Officer Byrd walking east towards my location. Cassandra kept trying to pull away from my grasp and I asked her to relax and put her hands behind her back. Officer Byrd saw Cassandra pulling away from me. He said something like, "Cassandra, would you stop and calm down. Do you want to go to jail?"

Cassandra immediately stopped pulling away and I was able to handcuff her pending further investigation. Officer Byrd asked Cassandra to walk back down towards the police cars. Cassandra threw herself on the ground and refused to walk down to the cars. I told Officer Byrd that I would stay with Cassandra so he could drive his police car closer to her. Officer Byrd walked down to his car and drove it up to where Cassandra and I were. Officer Byrd opened the right rear door of his patrol car and asked her to get in. Cassandra stood up and took a step towards the car. During this time, although Officer Byrd and I did not discuss it, it was my belief that we were taking Cassandra into custody for W&I 5150 as a danger to herself.

Cassandra refused to get in the back of the car and actively resisted getting in the car by posting her feet on the lower door jam and rear plastic seat. Cassandra pushed her body weight back against me while arching her back. I gave Cassandra continuous commands to relax and sit down in the car. Cassandra told me, "I'm insane. Just let me go home and take my perscription meds." Officer Byrd went around to the left rear door and tried to pull Cassandra into the back seat with negative results. Cassandra started yelling at a very high pitched level unintelligibly. I asked Officer Byrd if he could grab Cassandra by the knee because I saw her left leg was locked at the knee preventing me from forcing her into the back seat. When Officer Byrd released his grasp from her arm, Cassandra was able to use legs and feet to push off of the rear quarter panel of the police car and roll over my left shoulder. I knew there was a large mailbox right behind me, so I guided Cassandra away from the mailbox to prevent her from being injured on the mailbox. Cassandra landed on her knees, but quickly got to her feet and was facing me. I tried to grab Cassandra by the arms and she lunged at me with her mouth, biting me on the right forearm. I suffered a minor abrasion on my right forearm, near my wrist, from Cassandra biting me. I shoved Cassandra away from me to create distance and get a better position of advantage to gain control of her. I yelled, "Don't bite me!" Cassandra fell backwards into a dirt driveway, landing in a seated position, next to a dark colored Chrysler car.

I again tried to grab Cassandra and she began kicking at me with her feet. I pushed her feet towards the Chrysler and quickly sprawled onto Cassandra while wrapping my right arm around the lower portion of Cassandra's legs to prevent her from kicking me anymore. I told Cassandra to stop fighting with us and relax so we could help her. I used my body weight to pin Cassandra against the left rear wheel of the Chrysler while holding her legs. I asked Officer Byrd to get his maximum restraint "Hobble" so we could restrain Cassandra from kicking us. I requested a supervisor and FET. While Officer Byrd was getting his hobble, Cassandra was actively trying to slip her right hand out from the handcuffs. I told Cassandra to relax and stop messing with the cuffs. I grabbed her right hand, with my left hand, preventing her from slipping her hand through the cuff. I was still holding Cassandra's legs with my right arm. I yelled for Officer Byrd to come back and help with her cuffs.

Cassandra sat up, leaning forward towards me with her mouth open. I thought she was going to bite me again, only this time on my face. I pulled my face back as far as I could without releasing my grasp on her legs or hand. Cassandra then threw her head towards my face, head-butting me in the head. Due to the continual active resistance from Cassandra, and our close proximity, I used my right elbow to strike her in the face which allowed me to keep her from trying to bite me or head-butt me again. Cassandra immediately stopped fighting and relaxed. Cassandra said, "I'm done" and stayed on the ground without resisting. Cassandra sustained a laceration above her raised and swollen right eye as a result of my use of force to prevent further active resistance from Cassandra. I requested "code three cover" and an ambulance.

Officer Byrd got back to us with his hobble. As Officer Byrd gave me his hobble, Cassandra started banging her head on the ground. Officer Byrd controlled her head, while I used the hobble to maximum restrain Cassandra. I advised units could reduce their code three response and it was clear for medics to enter. Sergeant Bussey arrived on scene to supervise the incident. FET McLain arrived on scene to process the scene for evidence. Officer Crosby and Officer Wheeler arrived on scene and assisted with witness statements. See their respective reports for details. Cassandra was ultimately transported by Carlsbad Paramedics to Tri City Medical Center for treatment. I drove myself to TCMC for treatment. I cleared the hospital at about 2200 hours.

INDIVIDUALSREPORT NARRATIVE*ORIGIN:

On 122214, at approximately 1825 hours, I was dispatched to cover/assist Officers Byrd and Hay in the area of Andy Lane and Kelly Street, Oceanside. They had been at that location reference a family disturbance. I was dispatched to respond code 3 (lights and siren).

OFFICER OBSERVATIONS AND ACTIONS:

While enroute, I was advised to reduce my code 3 response. I continued to the scene. Upon my arrival in the area on Kelly Street, I saw that the suspect (Cassandra Wallace) was handcuffed and on a paramedic gurney. I was contacted by Officer Byrd (arresting officer). Officer Byrd advise me that he was riding in the ambulance with the suspect (Wallace) and requested that I drive his vehicle to Tri-City Hospital. I took no statements at the scene. I secured my police unit and drove Officer Byrd's police unit to the hospital. I secured his vehicle at that location and handed him his patrol car keys. I was transported back to my police unit at the original scene by another officer.

Plaintiff,
vs.

Cassandra Saheedai Wallace

Defendant.

DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF ARREST WARRANT

Case No. 14017108

D.A. No.

I, Matthew B. Byrd, declare I am a peace officer employed by the OCEANSIDE POLICE DEPARTMENT and I have read and reviewed the official reports of the OCEANSIDE POLICE DEPARTMENT CASE NUMBER 14017108 which states the following:

On 12/22/14 at about 1810 hours, I responded with Officer Hay to 1819 Andy Lane, on a radio call regarding a family disturbance. Near the location Officer Hay and I contacted Cassandra Wallace, who was involved in the disturbance. After speaking with Cassandra, I determined that she had been running and lying in a darkened roadway and was a possible danger to herself. I decided to detain her for a 72 Hour Hold, pursuant to W&I 5150. She appeared agitated and confused. Additionally, she appeared to be under the influence of a control substance, by speaking unintelligibly and flailing her arms uncontrollably. After handcuffing Cassandra, Officer Hay and I attempted to place her into the back seat of my vehicle. Cassandra began to resist and did not respond to our commands. She became rigid and stood on the lower door seal of the vehicle, with her upper torso above the roof of the vehicle. We were unable to place her in the vehicle and she continued to struggle with Officer Hay. During the altercation, Cassandra bit Officer Hay on his right forearm, causing a minor abrasion, which required treatment at Tri City Medical Center. After biting Officer Hay, Cassandra continued to fight. She lurched upwards with her upper torso and head-butted Officer Hay. She was restrained, and while lying on her back, she kicked upwards with both of her feet and attempted to kick Officer Hay in the face.

WHEREFORE, your declarant prays for the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of the above-named defendant for violations of: PC 69 – Obstructing/Resisting
